5. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, this Order is not authorizing a continuation of any incentive or severance plan, without prejudice to the Debtors' rights under the Bankruptcy Code.

6. Nothing in this Order (a) authorizes any payment subject to section 503(c) of the Bankruptcy Code, (b) shall prejudice the Debtors' ability to seek approval of relief pursuant to section 503(c) of the Bankruptcy Code at a later time, or (c) shall constitute a determination by the Court as to whether any individual entitled to payment pursuant to this Order is an Insider.

7. The Debtors are authorized, but not required, to modify, replace, terminate, amend, or supplement from time to time, in the ordinary course of the Debtors' businesses, the ERISA Severance Plan; provided, that nothing in this Order authorizes the Debtors to continue the ERISA Severance Plan or pay any amounts to any terminated Employee on account thereof.

9. Subject to entry of a final Order, the Debtors are authorized, but not required, in their sole discretion to reject, pursuant to section 365(a) of the Bankruptcy Code, the Prepetition LTIP Agreements in their entirety, effective nunc pro tunc to the Petition Date.

10. Pursuant to section 362(d) of the Bankruptcy Code, the automatic stay is modified solely to the extent necessary to allow current and former Employees to proceed with their claims under the Workers' Compensation Program in the appropriate judicial or administrative fora, and the Employees are authorized to so proceed. The Debtors are authorized, but not directed, to continue the Workers' Compensation Program and pay all prepetition amounts relating thereto in the ordinary course of business. The modification of the automatic stay set forth in this paragraph pertains solely to claims under the Workers' Compensation Program. The notice requirements under Bankruptcy Rule 4001(d) with respect to the above are waived.

11. All applicable banks and other financial institutions are hereby authorized to receive, process, honor, and pay any and all checks, drafts, wires, check transfer requests, or automated clearinghouse transfers evidencing amounts paid by the Debtors under this Order whether presented prior to, on, or after the Petition Date. Such banks and financial institutions are authorized to rely on the representations of the Debtors as to which checks are issued or authorized to be paid pursuant to this Order without any duty of further inquiry and without liability for following the Debtors' instructions.

12. 14. Subject to the relief granted herein, nothing in this Order or any action taken by the Debtors in furtherance of the implementation hereof shall be deemed to constitute an assumption or rejection of any executory contract or unexpired lease pursuant to section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code, and all of the Debtors' rights with respect to such matters are expressly reserved.

15. Notwithstanding the relief granted herein and any actions taken hereunder, nothing contained herein shall (a) create, nor is it intended to create, any rights in favor of, or enhance the status of any claim held by, any person or entity or (b) be deemed to convert the priority of any claim from a prepetition claim into an administrative expense claim.

16. Nothing in this Order nor the Debtors' payment of claims pursuant to this Order shall be construed as or deemed to constitute (a) an agreement or admission by the Debtors as to the amount, priority, character, or validity of any claim against the Debtors on any grounds, (b) a grant of third-party beneficiary status or bestowal of any additional rights on any third party, (c) a waiver or impairment of any rights, claims, or defenses of the Debtors' rights to dispute the amount, priority, character, or validity of any claim on any grounds, whether under bankruptcy or non-bankruptcy law, (d) a promise by the Debtors to pay any claim, or (e) an implication or admission by the Debtors that such claim is payable pursuant to this Order.

18. The Debtors are authorized to take any action necessary or appropriate to implement and effectuate the terms of, and the relief granted in, this Order without seeking further order of the Court.
